THE STAFF

Bonair Winery has been fortunate to attract a staff of entertaining, energetic, bright, interesting and fun people who understand wine, maintain high professional standards, and are dedicated to sharing their love of wine and Bonair with everybody, from wine neophytes to oenophiles.

GAIL PURYEAR: Winemaker and Jack of all Trades. Gail is always interested in making new and exciting different wines and blends. He is also the one everybody else turns to when computers crash, forklifts fail, wines need tweaking, and vines need special attention.

SHIRLEY PURYEAR: Wine goddess and General Manger. She gets the dubious honor of making sure the business keeps running (the reports are always in, we have enough money for our next project, and the bills are paid on time).

BILL MECHEM: Bill has been with us for three years as our assistant winemaker. Bill gets to do all the fun things like supervise 12 hour bottling days, clean out the tanks, and fiddle with the blends and make sure the wine develops smoothly from vine to bottle. He has an excellent pallet and is a perfectionist.

LYNDA OPEILA: Hospitality and Tasting Room Manager. Lynda brings boundless energy, exciting new ideas, and a wealth of wine knowledge to our business. She is the one who always “makes it happen” and keeps our visitors entertained and happy.

ALFONSO BETANCOURTH: Alfonso has been our vineyard manager for nearly 10 years. He keeps those 35 acres looking beautiful year round and is always able to get our pruning and picking crews in the field at the right time to do the perfect job.

ANNA AND JERRY. They are the best tasting room employees- always upbeat and always ready to make you smile and impress you with their wine knowledge.
